

AT THE 'VILLE.

Lawyer N. A. Norton and family, with Jda Haett, are stopping a short time at Glover Pond.

Miss M. A. Sanderson of Boston is spending a month with friends here in town.

Rev. E. J. Baird, the new Episcopal rector at St. Peter's church, preached an interesting sermon Sunday morning on "Good Works."

Mrs. George Murch is enjoying a visit from her sister, Miss Mary Towne, of Springfield. Miss Towne will spend the summer months here.

Mrs. John Murch spent Sunday at Lake Morey at the Robinson camp. From there she will go to White River Junction for a short stay with Mrs. A. C. Eastman.

Word has been received of the birth of two boys to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell of Springfield, Mass. Mr. Campbell is a son of E. M. Campbell.

Miss Nina Sheldon is stopping with Mrs. Emma Forsythe at Lyndon Center. Mrs. George Burdick spent Sunday at West Burke with friends.

Mrs. Grace Spain and two children are spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hutchinson.

Mrs. Frank Lantot and daughter of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday at J. L. Watchie's.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Curtis Squires on Friday afternoon of this week.

The subject at the Universalist church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock will be, "Everything immortal is by necessity of its nature, young."

Samuel Newton of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Grover Blaisdell.

Mrs. (Dr.) A. A. Cheney has been spending a few days with relatives at Craftsbury.

Mrs. L. S. Howe has been visiting Mrs. Abby Brigham at Concord.

Charles Gero was kicked in the side by a horse last Thursday. He was hurt quite badly, although not seriously.

Isadore Foss of Barton has been visiting at Mrs. J. P. Webster's.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Phillips are stopping with her sister, Mrs. Burton Campbell.

Miss Edith Sherburne has returned from St. Johnsbury and is stopping with her aunt, Mrs. B. J. Campbell.

Mrs. G. G. Morrison went Tuesday to visit her sister at Fairlee.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis from St. Johnsbury spent a few days last week at James Webber's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells Rogers are spending a few days at Sawyerville, P. Q.

Earle and Erma Pierce have gone to Montpelier to spend a short time with their aunt, Mrs. Emily Werthebe.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith go this week to Eaton, P. Q., for a short visit.

William Chaffee of Coburnville, Mass., has been spending a week at George Shore's.

Mrs. J. Humphrey of Little Campton, E. I., is stopping with her brother, Charles Grey.

PEACHAM.

The school in the north part of the town taught by Miss May Craig closed June 29th with a picnic attended by quite a crowd of people from the neighborhood. Cake, ice cream and lemonade were served. Three children in the school had no marks in the register as follows: Ernest Bolton, Henry Bolton and Henry Woods. Mrs. Alice Rowe closed a very successful term of school at the same time, in the east part of the town. She invited her pupils to her home that day and entertained them very pleasantly.

Mrs. Olin Morse McFarlan closed her school at Green Bay and the following pupils had no absent marks: Muriel Darling, Mabel Annis, Glen Watson, Carl Watson, Perley Jennison.

Miss Sadie Woodbury from Everett, Mass., is spending a part of her vacation at the Misses Dickford's. William Miller from Manchester, N. H., and Allan Livingston, a friend of Henry Miller's are at Mr. Stridberg's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ricker from St. Johnsbury visited at Robert Esden's over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blanchard from Spokane, Wash., are spending some time at Walter Blanchard's.

A picnic at Martin's Pond had been planned for the Fourth but the rain prevented and the company gathered in the town hall in the evening and had their clam chowder and social.

Dr. and Mrs. James Blanchard and Don Blanchard from White River Junction are at Mrs. Abby McClary's.

Frank Gould and his daughter and a friend of the latter Miss Hazen, from Chicago, are stopping at Mrs. Clara Bailey's.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson spent two days at Walpole the guests of the Guthrie family who are camping there.

Mrs. C. J. Clark from Brighton, Mass., Mrs. Priscilla Niles from Minneapolis, Minn., Mrs. Elizabeth Allan and her little grand daughter Priscilla Allan are boarding at Mrs. Clara Bailey's.

Theodore Farrow is on the sick list and Mrs. Etta Pollard is still quite ill.

Mrs. Mary Taisey is at Frank Pollard's.

The Ladies' Missionary meeting will be held Friday, at 2:30 p. m., with Mrs. Elsie Merrill. Subject for the meeting, "Africa." Tea will be served at which time the gentlemen are invited.

Mrs. Alla Gillilan who has been at Nelson Bailey's for the last three weeks was taken so ill with asthma that she was advised to return at once to her home in Kewanee, Ill.

Go to Frasier's for all kinds of haying tools. Opposite depot. West Danville.

Go to Frasier's for all kinds of haying tools. Opposite depot. West Danville.

Go to Frasier's for all kinds of haying tools. Opposite depot. West Danville.

Go to Frasier's for all kinds of haying tools. Opposite depot. West Danville.

Go to Frasier's for all kinds of haying tools. Opposite depot. West Danville.

Go to Frasier's for all kinds of haying tools. Opposite depot. West Danville.

Go to Frasier's for all kinds of haying tools. Opposite depot. West Danville.

NORTH DANVILLE.

Mrs. Emma F. Wells and daughter, Carrie of Passumpsic visited friends and relatives about here recently.

Mrs. H. B. Ward and son Ben visited relatives in Newport the past week.

Mrs. Jane D. Scott and son Frank of Haverill, Mass., are spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Blodgett, and other relatives about here.

Mrs. W. H. Rollins of St. Johnsbury spent the past two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Ward, returning to her home Sunday.

A. M. McFarlan returned from the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington, last week Monday, where he was very successfully operated on for appendicitis two weeks previous.

Mrs. Augusta Colby and son Isaac and daughter Nellie and Sadie of Danville spent Sunday at L. C. Stanton's.

Mrs. Carrie Clement and daughter Mary of St. Johnsbury are visiting at William Clement's.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Andersen of Boston spent several days with his sister, Mrs. O. H. Stevens, the past week.

S. N. Hubbell received the sad news of the death of his daughter, Hattie (Hubbell) Clough of Philadelphia, which occurred Saturday evening, she having been run over by an automobile and killed while out walking on the street. Her many friends here are saddened to hear of her untimely death. Her parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weeks and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Weeks of St. Johnsbury were at J. P. Weeks', Sunday.

Miss Lila Gillilan of St. Johnsbury is stopping with her aunt, Mrs. B. G. Varnum.

Rev. F. E. Wyman of Hanover, N. H., has just begun his pastoral work at the Methodist church here.

SHEFFIELD.

David Wood has been failing quite fast of late.

Walker and Frizzell's buildings, with all their household goods and clothing, were burned Sunday night. The explosion of a lantern was the cause of the fire. The buildings were partially insured, but the loss is a severe one, as everything was burned but the night clothes which they wore.

T. H. Chesley of Kewanee, Ill., is expected here this week to settle up the estate of the late Mrs. Sally Pearl.

Word comes that Dr. N. M. Wood of Charlestown, Mass., who has been very sick, is convalescent, and will soon be out of the hospital.

J. C. King has moved to Barton, where he has bought the Percival house. H. E. Paige will move there in September. He has bought the John Bean house.

It has caused more laughs and dried more tears, wiped away diseases and driven away more fears than any other medicine in the world. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets. Flint Bros., and P. G. Landry.

GREENSBORO.

Miss Jessie Tinker returned to St. Johnsbury Saturday.

W. S. Jackson returned to Waltham, Mass., Friday.

Miss Grace Carson of St. Johnsbury visited her uncle, A. E. Debrune last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barr of Cabot have been spending several days with their daughter, Mrs. J. H. Barrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett of Cabot visited at Mr. and Mrs. Harley Haines' last week.

Alpha Gebbie lost a valuable horse last Thursday.

Fred Messer was in St. Johnsbury on business Monday.

F. N. Meacham is putting an addition onto his barn.

The following are among the guests at the Cospian Lake house. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sheldon, Miss Frances and Miss Louisa Sheldon, F. A. Barnard and Rev. John Brant of Boston; Mrs. E. A. Coulter and J. F. Coulter of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. C. E. Camp of Springfield, Mass.; Clarence J. Furgerson of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rossiter and daughter of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morrill and J. H. Morrill Jr., of Winter Hill, Mass.; Prof. H. F. Wilcox, Mrs. Wilcox and children of New York.

Silas E. Holloway, a farmer, has filed a petition in bankruptcy, with liabilities of $308.55 and assets of $50, all of which are claimed exempt.

W. J. Lamb and family of West Somerville, Mass., are at their summer cottage at Caspian Lake. Mr. Lamb has a naphtha launch 22 feet long and six feet wide with canopy top and has already run it on the lake three miles in twelve minutes. He is making extensive repairs on his cottage and building a fine boat house and putting in a combination pump and gasoline engine to pump water from the lake into a tank to supply water for domestic use and bath. He also took from home a Kentucky bred mare that can step quite lively.

WEST BARNET.

Albert Carter of Tilton, N. H., spent last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Carter.

Mrs. M. B. Hale was the guest of Miss Edith Wallace for a few days last week.

Arthur Pierce of Boston was the guest of Mrs. Clara Gammon last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mackay and children of St. Johnsbury spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Cloud Harvey.

Rev. and Mrs. S. P. Brownell and children are spending a few weeks in Nova Scotia.

Stephen Carter went to Burlington last week for an operation on his eye.

Miss Roberta Gammon of Lynn, Mass., is spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. Clara Gammon.

George P. Blair's store was broken into Saturday night and $10 or 15 in cash removed from the money drawer.

CABOT.

The scholars in the Lower Cabot school having no absent marks are: Harold, Lillian and Beatrice Lance, Robert Clark, Bessie and Cora Lebaron, Abbie Smith, Ralph Mears, Nettie Gilman, Susie Starre. Mary Lebaron was absent one day on account of illness. Sarah Clark, aged four years, attended the last four weeks without a mark. Mrs. Bertha O. Chester was the teacher.

Go to Frasier's for all kinds of haying tools. Opposite depot. West Danville.

AT DANVILLE.

J. E. Harris of Washington, D. C., and his daughter, Miss Frances Harris, arrived in town Friday for the summer.

William French of Boston is visiting his sister, Mrs. Albert Ingalls.

Mrs. Stephen Knowlton returned to West Medway, Friday, after a two weeks visit with friends in town.

Remember the social at the church parlors this afternoon and evening.

The Gorman and Ford Dramatic Co. are here for the week, giving a different play every night. Their entertainments are very popular and they will, as usual, probably draw crowded houses.

Miss Neta Ketchum of Pennacook, N. H., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Winfield Fisher.

John Osgood, a former Danville boy, has been visiting relatives in town for a few days. He is the proprietor of Brighton Cafe at Westfield, Mass.

Misses Sarah and Alice Lang of Waltham, Mass., have been visiting their cousin, Carl Lang.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bass and daughter, and Lewis Bergstrom of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss Mary Beard of South Norwalk, Conn., are boarding at W. F. Dole's.

Mrs. William Clifford, who has been visiting her son, Bert Barber, has returned to her home at Conway, N. H.

Miss Helen T. Slate of Sag Harbor, L. I., is at J. P. Preston's for the summer.

S. N. Hubbell has received a telegram announcing the death of his daughter, Mrs. Hattie Clough, of Philadelphia. She was run over by an automobile and died from the result of her injuries.

The remains of Alluvia Farrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Farrington, of West Danville, were brought here for burial Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Farrington have the sympathy of their many friends in this sudden bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ford of Newton Highlands, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Ford's aunt, Mrs. Charles Dole.

Charles Kittredge of Carroll, N. H., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Kittredge, for a couple of weeks.

We clip the following item, in regard to a former Danville boy, from the Milford Daily Journal: "Dr. Walter C. Haviland, for more than two years has been of the staff of physicians at the Worcester Insane Asylum, has resigned, and July 17 will assume the practice of a prominent Worcester physician, recently deceased. Dr. Haviland graduated from the Baltimore Medical College in 1904, serving as interne at the Maryland General Hospital during his senior year. The doctor begins the duties of his new office under the most favorable auspices, and his many friends wish him every success." This sentiment is also joined in by his Danville friends.

Telephones have recently been installed in the following houses: Henry Chalmers, Corlies Morrill, Frank Sammons, Ed. Fountain, Lewis Le Bey, A. F. Page, W. C. Cheever; also in the cottages of E. E. Gage, P. F. Hazen and C. H. Goss at Joe's Pond.

Miss Kate Currier visited at "Grouselands" at North Danville last week.

Mrs. M. J. Calbeck and Miss Emma Calbeck of St. Johnsbury, Miss Cosgrove of Providence, R. I., and John Cosgrove of New York City visited at M. V. B. Sargent's last week.

The lawn party held under the auspices of the Epworth League, Friday evening, was a very successful affair and netted the society over $11.

Dr. C. E. Libbey went to Burlington, Monday, to attend a meeting of the health officers.

Mrs. S. J. Hastings of Waterford is visiting at Martin Dow's.

E. O. Holloway met with an accident Sunday, while driving one horse and leading another. An automobile came up behind his team and frightened the horse he was leading, so that it jumped into the wagon, while the horse attached to the wagon cleared itself and ran away. The accident occurred just as Mr. Holloway was turning into his own dooryard, and Mrs. Holloway came out in time to get the number of the machine, which went on without stopping to see how serious the accident was.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will hold a hash supper Wednesday, July 18th.

Go to Frasier's for all kinds of haying tools. Opposite depot. West Danville.

SOUTH WHELOCK.

Miss Rose Jeffers of St. Johnsbury has been visiting in town for a few days.

Miss Nora Buckley has returned home from Barton, where she has been at work.

A. E. Weed and family visited in Standard the first of the week.

Miss Grace Deoss finished her school in District No. 7 last Monday. We all hope she may return for the next term.

N. P. Truth, St. Paul, June 31, '08—'I've lived so long, I remember well when the Mississippi was a brook. My good health and long life came by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents. Flint Bros., and P. G. Landry.

WALDEN.

Mrs. Erma Gould and children of Brockton, Mass., are visiting friends in town.

George M. Kingsbury of St. Johnsbury spent last week with friends here.

Master Hugh Jones came Saturday to spend the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kittredge.

W. J. Kingsbury is in Burlington this week, attending the school for health officers.

Miss Emma Conant of Cabot is helping care for her aunt, Mrs. Lucius Conant.

Go to Frasier's for all kinds of haying tools. Opposite depot. West Danville.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth Melver, of Vaneboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at Flint Bros., and P. G. Landry's drug stores, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

EAST CONCORD.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith and son Ray have moved onto their farm known as the John Parker place near Texas.

Horace Briggs and wife have moved to Fitzdale. Mr. Briggs will work for the Dalton Young Co.

Mrs. J. F. Keneston is in Whitefield visiting her brother, Clark Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Will Idais and two children were guests of Erwin Powers and wife last Sunday.

Mrs. Nettie Wier recently visited friends in this place.

James Williams of Boston was in the place last week visiting his old friends and former home.

Harris Sampson of Whitefield was in the place last Sunday and visited the cemetery, where he has recently set a very handsome monument.

Susie Briggs has finished work for Mr. Newman in Lunenburg.

John McDonald attended the Fourth of July celebration at Littleton, also the horse trot on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Grant spent Sunday at their old home at the ferry.

Frank Peabody went last Monday to Boston, where he will enter the Massachusetts general hospital for surgical treatment.

Curt Goodall is now in Concord, N. H., with his wife, who went there several weeks ago for medical treatment.

Mrs. Lena Nichols recently visited her sister, Mrs. H. H. Nichols.

Miss Kate Fisher entertained Miss Annie Mann, Miss Lillian Virtue and Miss Ramont of Concord over the Fourth.

Miss Grace Story has returned home from Waterford, where she has been spending a few weeks at K. Pike's.

Miss Ida Root spent Sunday in Lyndonville, where she visited her sister, Mrs. Fred Pound.

Mrs. Eugene Moulton spent a part of last week with her mother in Lunenburg.

H. R. Pratt of St. Johnsbury was here last week visiting friends and trying his luck at trout catching.

Clark Story is somewhat improved in health, but is not able to resume his labors at Fitzdale.

John Folsom opened his store during the Fourth and had a large sale.

Schools closed here last week. Those perfect in attendance in Miss Morris' room were Pearl Grant, Robbie Grant, Gerald Briggs, Isabel Briggs being absent but one day on account of illness.

In the early hours of July 4 while the boys were doing their best to keep sleepy people awake their anvil exploded and a small piece of the iron passed through George Higgins' leg, half way between the knee and ankle, injuring it so badly that amputation was necessary. Harley Higgins was quite badly burned about the hands and arms. They are both doing as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Higgins, Frank Higgins and their mother, Mrs. Marion Higgins were called here last Wednesday by the accident of George Higgins July 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Folsom, Fred Kelley and Miss Gwendolyn Powers drove over from St. Johnsbury and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McDonald.

Owing to the rainy day July 4th the celebrations here were not largely attended, but those present agreed that the day passed off quietly and pleasantly, and the program was well carried out.

WELLS RIVER.

George Adams of Waltham, Mass., accompanied by his son, came to the home of his mother, Mrs. H. W. Adams, July 4th and remained over Sunday.

Mrs. Anna D. Leslie of Montpelier is spending a few weeks with Mrs. E. C. Graves.

Dr. and Mrs. Herman Bone of Waterbury came Tuesday of last week to attend a family reunion at William Bone's. The doctor returned to Waterbury Wednesday. Mrs. Bone remained a few days to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Davis, and to be present at the alumni banquet at Hale's Tavern.

A. H. Bailey went to New York Friday night.

Edward Humphrey and son of Boston were in town over Sunday, guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Lee.

Nellie Bailey and Jennie McEllen were at Briar Hill the past week at work for George Stenning, picking strawberries.

Mrs. Clara Butler Morris, who has been at Mrs. Deming's through the winter and spring, went to Burlington July 2, accompanied by her niece, Miss Myra Butler.

Miss Marian Whitlaw, who teaches in Wakefield, Mass., is spending the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Whitlaw.

Miss Muriel E. Goodwin returned last week from Dana Hall, Wellesley, Mass.

Madam Slack has been quite ill for the past week, but is better now.

Miss Elizabeth Dalton is home from Boston, where she has been teaching music the last few months.

Miss Lotta Belanger had a severe attack of appendicitis last week and accompanied by her father, Rev. J. A. Belanger, went to Boston Sunday night for treatment.

Mrs. Melvina Hoyt, formerly of this place, now of Boston, was the guest of Mrs. Erastus Baldwin over Sunday.

Miss Ruth Randall is home from St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leslie of Melrose, Mass., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Graves.

Mrs. J. A. Whitney and Mrs. A. H. Bailey spent Saturday at Hall's Pond.

Mrs. Frank Deming went to Waterbury, Me., last week to visit friends.

The W. R. H. S. Alumni banquet was held at Hale's Tavern Friday evening, July 6, nearly 40 being present. The classes from '92 to the present year were represented. Hazen Hibbard was toastmaster and toasts were given by Myra Butler, Lottie Mann, Ellen Bone, Mabel Hall and Maude Davis. Mary Gates gave an original poem. Vocal selections were given by Miss Adine Hale and John Bone. At the business meeting these officers were elected: Ed. Markham, president; Lottie Munsell, vice-president; Nellie Lee, secretary and treasurer; executive committee, the first two officers and Maude Davis and Hazen Hibbard. A letter of regret was read from Miss Ruth Randall, who, on account of sickness, was unable to be present.

The New England telephone men have been at work here several days setting new poles and putting 120 wires into a cable.

Mrs. Statira Chamberlin, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Frank George, spent a very pleasant afternoon, Monday, July 9, when her old friends and schoolmates were invited to visit her, the occasion being her 79th birthday. Her children were also present, thus making her especially happy.

LOWER WATERFORD.

The Ladies' Social Circle will serve ice cream and cake in the vestry Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bowman and family of St. Johnsbury, spent Sunday at the hotel.

L. B. Church entertained friends from St. Johnsbury Center, Saturday and Sunday.

Willard Kinnie of Littleton, is spending some time with his aunt, Mrs. E. W. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Morrison and little daughter, and Miss Bessie Carter of St. Johnsbury, spent the Fourth at his father's George Morrison.

Hon. H. I. Goss and family of Berlin, N. H., came last Friday and will spend the summer here.